

It has certainly been a busy start to the year for 'Debbie's kitchen', both with functions and bookings for the rest of the year, I even have a Christmas booking for 2026!
Thank you to new and returning customers for keeping me from being bored and allowing me to do what I love.
Take care and enjoy this months newsletter.

It was a pleasure to provide some grazing platters for a 'Sunday night Pamper Party' 🥰 for some ex colleagues of Fareham College this weekend.

"We had a lovely evening with platters from Debbie's Kitchen - beautifully presented and she was very adaptable to our needs. The olive and onion focaccia was almost too pretty to eat ...but we did!"

🌸 What a wonderful way to spend a Sunday morning, learning a new skill, this month with macarons and knife skills on the curriculum 🥰
"Just wanted to say how much I loved the class this morning! I'm beyond proud of my macarons-people are allowed to look but not touch them! I've already ordered the book-think I've found my calling!! I'll be keeping my eyes peeled for future classes!"

Something a little different this month.....
"The perfect French getaway"

I am so excited this month to announce that my good friends, Chris & Sara's fabulous Gite is now open for business.
It is the most perfect 'get away from it all' when you stay at 'Les Eduts', set in a small hamlet in Charente Maritime, France.
This quaint, traditional 2 bedroomed gite is fully equipped for 5 guests, has a private swimming pool plus a beautiful hot tub.
Click here for more information on the beautiful property.
Within easy reach of beaches, La Rochelle and Cognac, this property has everything you need for a memorable holiday with the most hospitable of hosts.
This wonderful property can be booked on airbnb or contact Sara through Facebook.

"We had a wonderful stay at this lovely 2-bedroom gite. Thoughtfully set up with everything you could possibly need, it strikes the perfect balance between comfort and charm. Nestled in a beautifully tranquil setting, it's the kind of place that gently insists you slow down, relax, and completely unwind. Ideal for recharging your batteries – we left feeling refreshed and already looking forward to a return visit.....so we did (3 times so far and looking forward to returning again later this year)".
